Report on “7-Day Workshop on Handmade Business Ideas,”

The “7-Day Workshop on Handmade Business Ideas,” held from October 4 to 11, 2023, was a significant event aimed at empowering students with practical skills and knowledge to explore and establish their own handmade businesses. Led by experienced artists and crafters, this workshop offered a comprehensive learning experience, combining creativity with entrepreneurial insights.

The workshop kicked off with an inspiring inauguration by the college Principal, Dr. Seema Agarwal, who encouraged students to take full advantage of this opportunity to learn from experts and explore their creative potential. Her motivational address set the tone for the workshop, emphasizing the importance of developing both artistic skills and business acumen in today’s competitive world.

A notable aspect of the workshop was the involvement of the college’s alumni as resource persons, highlighting the strong connection between past and present students. The workshop featured sessions on a variety of handmade business ideas, each led by a skilled practitioner:

1. Diwali Décor: Mrs. Shikha Khandelwal, an alumna known for her expertise in festive décor, guided students through creating traditional and modern Diwali decorations. Her session focused on designing eco-friendly and marketable products, with an emphasis on sustainability.
2. Paper Mache Art: Ms. Kumkum Agarwal, another accomplished alumna, conducted a session on paper mache techniques. She shared innovative ways to create intricate art pieces that could be sold as decorative items or functional products.

Students learned how to effectively promote their handmade products online, build a brand, and reach a wider audience through platforms like Instagram and Facebook.

The workshop was enthusiastically attended by 143 students from various streams, all eager to gain new skills and explore potential business ideas. Each session was designed to be interactive, allowing students to engage with the instructors, ask questions, and practice the techniques being taught.

The involvement of alumni as resource persons not only added credibility to the workshop but also provided current students with relatable role models who have successfully ventured into the handmade business world. The practical skills taught during the workshop were complemented by real-world advice on how to start and grow a business, from product development to marketing and sales.

Overall, the "7-Day Workshop on Handmade Business Ideas" was a resounding success, offering students a well-rounded education in both the creative and commercial aspects of handmade products.
