Report on Kanoria 's Fiesta 23

Sukriti-Art & Craft Club at Kanoria PG Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Jaipur, organized a three-day event titled Kanoria's Fiesta 2023 in collaboration with Entrepreneurship Club and Centre for Entrepreneurship development from October 30 to November 1, 2023. This exhibition celebrated creativity and entrepreneurship, bringing together over 80 participating students who showcased a wide variety of handmade products, including chocolates, Diwali decorations, textile crafts, jewellery, and an array of food items. The event aimed to provide a platform for students to display their talents, connect with the community, and gain exposure to the practical aspects of running a small business.

The stalls were divided into two categories: Products and Food. In the Products category, students displayed intricate jewellery, handcrafted Diwali decorations, personalized gifts, and textile products that reflected their artistic skills and attention to detail. Handmade chocolates, which were a highlight, attracted visitors with their visually appealing presentation and unique flavours. In the Food category, students offered an enticing variety of snacks and homemade delicacies, from traditional Indian fare to innovative fusion dishes. These food stalls emphasized both taste and presentation, creating a delightful experience for attendees.

Each day, the best stalls from both the Product and Food categories were selected based on their originality, creativity, and presentation. The criteria for judgment ensured that participants who demonstrated innovation and excellent craftsmanship were duly recognized. Originality referred to the uniqueness of the products or dishes, creativity focused on the imaginative use of resources, and presentation emphasized the aesthetic appeal of the stalls, with a well-designed layout and clear product descriptions giving certain stalls an advantage.

The exhibition allowed the participants to engage with visitors, receive feedback, and gain valuable insights into customer preferences and market dynamics. This interaction helped foster a stronger sense of connection, while also providing a learning experience for the students in terms of business management and customer satisfaction. From the Director's Desk

Dave Willis said, "Family isn't defined only by last names or by blood: it's defined by commitment and love", Kanoria college is a family and like all families it bonds perfectly. For inculcating the true spirit of the humane and to foster the student's individuality, it creates an atmosphere where the students may grow and showcase their talents. SAGA -The Annual Literary Festival is one such platform which broadens the horizons of student's imagination, creativity, and help them to find their true muse. It is our pleasure to invite the students to make this event a bigger success and carve out the niche for the college in literary and cultural scene of the state.

-Dr. Rashmi Chaturvedi
